

Spelling list: a-e words - set 2

In this section, we continue exploring the a-e spelling pattern, which represents the long /a/ sound. You'll encounter several longer words that showcase this spelling. Understanding how the a-e combination functions will enhance your spelling skills and vocabulary.

As you learn these new words, pay attention to their meanings and how they can be used in sentences. Recognising the context in which these words appear will help solidify your understanding. Embrace the challenge of expanding your language skills, and remember to refer back to the previous set for a deeper grasp of the a-e spelling pattern.

amaze	You never fail to amaze me.
debate	Politicians debate important issues in parliament.
escape	The zebra tried to escape from the zoo.
inflate	How quickly can you inflate all the balloons?
translate	Can you translate from French?
migrate	Some birds migrate at the same time each year.
vibrate	The heavy truck made the bridge vibrate .
behave	My dog is being trained to behave well.
inhale	Inhale means to breathe in.
exhale	Exhale means to breathe out.
aeroplane	The Wright brothers flew the first aeroplane .
calculate	Can you calculate the total cost?
emigrate	Tom plans to emigrate to Mexico when he retires.
estimate	I estimate we'll land in forty minutes.
hesitate	Please don't hesitate to call me.