

Spelling list: ai words - set 2

The letter combination ai is a key spelling pattern in English that frequently represents the long /a/ sound. Understanding how to use this combination correctly is essential, as it appears in various words like again and afraid .

In this set, you'll find a selection of words that incorporate the ai spelling. These words are commonly used and learning them will enhance your vocabulary. As you explore these examples, remember to use the spelling activities to strengthen your understanding of this pattern!

again	I have lost my door key again .
afraid	My son is afraid of the dark.
entail	What will the job entail ?
explain	Please explain why you are late.
complain	I'm going to complain about the awful smell.
contain	A good diet should contain many different foods.
detail	The wedding was planned down to the last detail .
obtain	You can obtain her books from her website.
maintain	A car will last longer if you maintain it well.
remain	We need to remain vigilant.