

Spelling list: Using the prefix ex-

exit	The exit is over there.
excursion	They went on a fun excursion to the zoo.
external	The old house has external walls made from sandstone.
extend	We will apply for permission to extend our house.
explode	They watched the fireworks explode in the sky.
exterior	The exterior angle is the angle between any side of a shape, and a line extended from the next side.
export	These cars are to be sold for export .
exclaim	I heard the children exclaim , 'Wow!' when they saw the amazing fireworks.
experimentation	An idea or explanation that you then test through study and experimentation .
expel	Breathe in slowly, then quickly expel the air from your lungs.
exchange	In an exchange reaction, two atoms or ions trade places.
exemplification	