

Spelling list: be words

Words that start with the prefix be often use a single e to create the long /e/ sound.

Learning words with this pattern will help build a strong vocabulary and reinforce understanding of common English prefixes. Practice these examples to learn with how be words are used in sentences!

because            You should not persecute someone because of their beliefs.

become            Peter would like to become a doctor.

before            She ate her dinner before going out.

behind            They hid behind a tree.

belong            That book doesn't belong to the library.

below            He lives in the apartment below me.

between           An alley runs between the houses.

beware            The sign warned us to beware of the bears.

beyond            He lives just beyond the hill.