

Spelling list: 2008 Sat spelling

currency

precious            The cave was filled with precious stones.

opportunity        This is a great opportunity to get some work experience.

fibres              Optical fibres can be used to transmit signals.

responsible        Who's responsible for this mess?

common            The brontosaurus was common in North America.

luxury

discovered        There are many species of fish yet to be discovered .

permission        A squatter uses another person's property without asking permission .

people             Many people do not have sufficient food.

ordinary            The food tasted very ordinary .

unusual            Something Very unusual is extraordinary.

exclusive          The shops in Bond Street are very exclusive .

despite            The team lost the game despite their quality,.

remains            Residue is something that remains or is left over.

delicate            Mosses have weak roots ; thin, delicate leaves and do not have seeds.

amazing            The twins likeness was amazing .

individuals        Romanticism is a an art movement which celebrates the idea of the Sublime and the importance of the individuals sensibility over everything else.

articles