

Spelling list: Year 8 English Summer Term

Chaucer

English            English spelling is very hard.

language            The TV censor cut out the bad language .

etymology            Etymology is the study of the origin of words.

French                French criminals were sent to the guillotine.

development            We are now studying the development of the English language.

century                We are now in the 21st century .

language            The TV censor cut out the bad language .

English                English spelling is very hard.

Modern                Modern warfare uses computers.

English                English spelling is very hard.

narrative            The narrative tells the story of something that has happened in the correct order.

narrator                A narrator speaks the words of a story.

pilgrimage            A pilgrimage is a religious journey to a sacred place.

poem                    I learnt the poem by rote.

poet                    The poet wrote an ode to his love.

Speaker                The audience ignored the speaker .