

Spelling list: aw

aw is often used at the end of a word and often before the letter l or n saw                    I saw a strange sight last night.

draw                    I won a thousand dollars in the draw .

crawl                    Our son began to crawl at the age of eight months.

yawn                    Tiredness makes you yawn .

paw                    That dog's paw looks very sore.

straw                    I asked the waiter to bring me a straw .