

Spelling list: Characters in The Picture of Dorian Gray

The Picture of Dorian Gray tells the story of a young man named Dorian Gray who becomes obsessed with eternal youth and beauty. After having his portrait painted by Basil Hallward, Dorian's life takes a dark turn as his portrait ages while he remains perpetually young.

Dorian	Dorian Gray, the protagonist, is a young man who becomes consumed with preserving his youth and beauty.
Gray	Dorian Gray , the protagonist, is a young man who becomes consumed with preserving his youth and beauty.
James	Lord Henry Wotton is an influential and hedonistic friend who leads Dorian down a path of indulgence and pleasure-seeking.
Wotton	Lord Henry Wotton is an influential and hedonistic friend who leads Dorian down a path of indulgence and pleasure-seeking.
Hallward	Basil Hallward is a talented artist who becomes infatuated with Dorian's beauty and paints a portrait that holds a dark secret.
Sibyl	Sibyl Vane is a talented actress who falls in love with Dorian, but tragically suffers from his changing affections.
vane	Sibyl Vane is a talented actress who falls in love with Dorian, but tragically suffers from his changing affections.
James	James Vane, the protective brother of Sibyl, seeks revenge against Dorian for the pain he caused his sister.
Victoria	Lady Victoria Wotton is Lord Henry's wife.
Campbell	Alan Campbell is a former friend of Dorian.
Agatha	Lady Agatha is a high-society member who attends social events and engages in conversations with Lord Henry and others.
Leaf	Mrs. Leaf is a devoted housekeeper who witnesses the changes in Dorian's behavior and appearance over time.

Victor	Victor is a servant in Dorian's household who assists with daily tasks and observes the impact of Dorian's actions.
Monmouth	The Duchess of Monmouth is a high-ranking aristocrat who flirts with Dorian.
Fermor	Lord Fermor is an older nobleman who has a connection to Dorian's family history and provides insights into his past.