

Spelling list: ind words

Words with ind use the letter i to represent the long /i/ sound, as in find and kind . These words often have simple, consistent spelling patterns, making them easier to learn.

For example, in bind , the long /i/ sound is followed by nd , while in mind , the same pattern applies.

Learn these words by playing a fun spelling game to help you remember them!

bind	Rope was used to bind the prisoners.
blind	The baby was born blind and deaf.
find	Fred can never find his car keys.
grind	We grind our spices in a pestle and mortar.
hind	The dog stood up on his hind legs.
kind	What kind of pizza would you like?
mind	I might change my mind .
rind	I grated some lemon rind to mix in the cake.
wind	I wind the rope around the post.