Spelling list: GCSE English Literature: Poetry 1

Key words for GCSE English Literature.

poet A poet is someone who writes poems.

A stanza is a grouping of two or more lines in a poem and provides order stanza and an expectation of closure.

punctuation Punctuation marks are used in writing for clarity.

voice The voice refers to the characteristic speech of the narrator.

line A line is a unit of poetry.

speaker The speaker is the narrator of a poem.

regular A poem can have regular features like a pattern.

irregular A poem can be irregular and not follow a pattern.

monostich A monostich is a poem consisting of a single line.

foot A foot is the combination of stressed and unstressed syllables.

rhyme Rhyme is the repetition of similar sounds in a poem.

mood Mood is the atmosphere created by the text.

pace Pace is the perceived speed of a poem.

structure The structure of a poem is the way it is arranged and presented.

syntax Syntax is the arrangement of words and phrases.