

Spelling list: T-1

| | |
|------------|---|
| circular | The circular road was difficult to navigate. |
| argue | Why do you always argue with me? |
| volume | Volume is usually measured in cubic centimeters. |
| circle | I have a wide circle of friends. |
| organise | |
| official | 'No passport, no plane' stated the official . |
| argument | He was the aggressor in the argument . |
| office | I'll call your office to say you are sick. |
| summon | |
| victim | Pathos involves feeling sorry for a character who has become a helpless victim . |
| invite | Will Jeff invite us to his party? |
| estimate | I estimate we'll land in forty minutes. |
| invitation | We're pleased to accept your invitation . |
| officer | A General is an important army officer . |
| accept | I accept your apology. |
| impossible | It's impossible to hear you. |