

Spelling list: -o words - musical

The long -o sound at the end of these musical words is spelled with just the letter o . Each term relates to musical instruments, styles, or techniques, making this list perfect for building vocabulary in the arts.

Allegro is an musical term meaning fast and lively . Instruments like the banjo , bongo , and cello represent different musical traditions, while flamenco is a vibrant Spanish dance style that involves music, stamping, and clapping. Terms like solo and soprano refer to specific musical roles or parts.

This list introduces the rich vocabulary of music, perfect for enthusiasts and learners alike.

Try a Look, Cover, Say, Write, Check activity or click on the speaker icon to learn how to pronounce each word.

allegro	Allegro describes a fast music movement.
alto	He sang alto in the local choir.
banjo	He learned to play the banjo .
bongo	We danced to the beat of the bongo drum.
calypso	We sang and danced to calypso music.
cello	My friend plays the cello incredibly well.
concerto	Mozart was the master of the concerto .
flamenco	Flamenco is a Spanish dance with stamping and clapping.
oratorio	An oratorio is a long dramatic musical work.
piano	I play my piano for hours each day.
piccolo	The piccolo is a small instrument of the flute family.
solo	Solo means on your own.
soprano	The soprano singer sang the solo.
tango	The tango is a Latin-American ballroom dance.