

Spelling list: ESL Spelling Help: Demystify Commonly Confused Words

Enhance your English learning journey with our list of commonly confused words. Perfect for ESL learners, this list focuses on clarifying distinctions and improving spelling accuracy. Say goodbye to confusion and elevate your language skills with our ESL-friendly spelling resources.

their	Their house is painted blue.
there	The park is over there , by the lake.
they're	They're going to the theatre tonight.
your	Is this your book?
you're	You're doing a great job!
its	The cat licked its paw.
it's	It's raining outside.
to	Let's go to the park.
too	She ate too much cake.
two	There are two apples on the table.
here	Come here and sit next to me.
hear	Can you hear the birds chirping?
wear	I wear a cap in summer.
where	Where have I put my keys?
break	I need a break from work.
brake	Apply the brake to slow down the car.
right	I wear a bracelet on my right wrist.
write	Please write your answers in black or blue pen.

meet Can you meet me at the bus stop?

meat We bought fresh meat from the butcher.