

Spelling list: Year 3, Term 3, Week 12: Review and reflect

This is a final chance to practise all the different prefixes, suffixes, and tricky words from this term. Let's finish strong!

beginning	The prologue is at the beginning of the play.
decision	The decision was unanimous.
fair	He will govern in a firm but fair way.
interview	June has an interview for a new job.
opaque	A material that allows no light to pass through it is opaque .
preferred	She preferred cake to pudding.
rebuild	After the storm we had to rebuild our garden shed.
quickly	Our baby has grown so quickly .
tension	The climax is the point of highest tension in a story.
transparent	Glass is a transparent material.