

Spelling list: Year 4, Term 1, Week 8: -tion endings

Words ending in -tion are very common in writing. They are usually nouns made from verbs, e.g. action from act .

action	I would like to suggest a plan of action .
attention	Please give this task your immediate attention .
bicycle	The bicycle needed a replacement wheel.
completion	Please submit your homework to the teacher upon completion .
direction	Run around the track in an anticlockwise direction .
education	We come to school for our education .
injection	The injection was only a little bit painful.
invention	The professor is working on another brilliant invention .
perhaps	Perhaps we should have some lunch.
popular	A cashew is a popular kind of nut.