

Spelling list: Anglo-Saxon suffixes

Page 67 and 5 more

freedom	An oppressor does not allow people their freedom .
fellowship	The Fellowship of the Ring is a famous book.
woollen	He wore a woollen jacket.
twofold	The reason we advertise is twofold - to attract more customers and to increase profits.
earthen	It is an earthen vase, meaning it is made of clay.
manifold	The secretary spent all day correcting the manifold or various errors in the document.
uppermost	Ilium is the uppermost part of the pelvis.
lordship	A title use to addres someone in government, a bishop or a judge.
kingdom	There was a ruler of each kingdom .
topmost	The children's safety must be the topmost or highest priority.
steady	The seat is not very steady .
fodder	In northen latitudes, the leaves are used as fodder for oxen to eat.
weigh	Weigh it in grammes, not ounces.
daughter	My brother's daughter is my niece.
conclusion	I came to the conclusion that they were wrong.