Spelling list: Anglo-Saxon suffixes

Page 67 and 5 more

freedom An oppressor does not allow people their freedom.

fellowship The Fellowship of the Ring is a famous book.

woollen He wore a woollen jacket.

The reason we advertise is twofold - to attract more customers and to twofold increase profits.

earthen It is an earthen vase, meaning it is made of clay.

The secretary spent all day correcting the manifold or various errors in the manifold document.

uppermost llium is the uppermost part of the pelvis.

lordship A title use to addres someone in government, a bishop or a judge.

kingdom There was a ruler of each kingdom.

topmost The children's safety must be the topmost or highest priority.

steady The seat is not very steady.

fodder In northen latitudes, the leaves are used as fodder for oxen to eat.

weigh Weigh it in grammes, not ounces.

daughter My brother's daughter is my niece.

conclusion I came to the conclusion that they were wrong.