

Spelling list: air - longer words

Let's move on to longer words that still use the air spelling for the /air/ sound. Words like repair , affair , and despair may seem more complex, but they follow the same spelling pattern and will be a part of your vocabulary in no time!

Ready to start learning? Try a Look, Say, Cover, Write, Check spelling activity!

affair	It was an affair to remember.
despair	He tried not to despair at the team's poor result.
impair	Very loud music may impair your hearing.
repair	The garage was able to repair the car's engine.
disrepair	The house was in a state of disrepair .
debonair	He looked debonair in his suit.
mohair	Mohair comes from the Angora goat.
eclair	This chocolate eclair is full of cream,.