

Spelling list: Year 5 week 29

predict	We were able to predict what would happen.
prefix	A prefix goes in front of a word.
previous	I've met her on two previous occasions.
pre-empt	He grabbed hold of the dog's collar to pre-empt its attack.
preview	Print preview allows the user to look at what will be printed.
prehistoric	In prehistoric times dinosaurs roamed the earth.
presuppose	If you accept that something is true before it has been proved, you presuppose it to be correct.
prerogative	Alex makes all the big decisions - that's his prerogative as company director.
prime	A prime number is a number that doesn't divide by anything except one.
primary	I will always remember my primary school teachers.
primrose	A primrose is a pretty flower.
primitive	Goods were made by hands and methods of production were primitive .