Spelling list: Year 5 week 29 predict We were able to predict what would happen.

prefix A prefix goes infront of a word.

previous I've met her on two previous occasions.

pre-empt He grabbed hold of the dog's collar to pre-empt its attack.

preview Print preview allows the user to look at what will be printed.

prehistoric In prehistoric times dinosaurs roamed the earth.

If you accept that something is true before it has been proved, you presuppose presuppose it to be correct.

Alex makes all the big decisions - that's his prerogative as company prerogative director.

prime A prime number is a number that doesn't divide by anything except one.

primary I will always remember my primary school teachers.

primrose A primrose is a pretty flower.

primitive Goods were made by hands and methods of production were primitive.