

Spelling list: Macbeth 1

GCSE & Year 9

witches	A witches laugh is called a cackle.
soliloquy	A soliloquy allows us into the mind of the character.
supernatural	Gothic is a style of writing characterised by horror, intense emotion and supernatural events.
bravery	I admire her bravery .
usurp
aside
superstitious	He was superstitious about walking underneath a ladder.
valiant	A valiant action is very brave and determined, though it may lead to failure or defeat.
heinous
irony	When someone means something other than what they say; the most obvious form is sarcasm, but irony is usually more subtle.
protagonist	Antagonist is the person or force within a story that opposes the protagonist or hero.
loyalty
manipulative	She was sly, selfish and manipulative .
atmosphere	The earth's atmosphere is one-fifth oxygen.
traitor	A traitor is someone who betrays his country.