

Spelling list: acc and succ words

These words need double c because the first letter c has a hard /k/ sound and the second letter c has a soft /s/ sound.

| | |
|------------|---|
| accelerate | Good drivers accelerate carefully. |
| accent | I couldn't place his accent . |
| accept | We're pleased to accept your invitation. |
| access | A ramp was built to give wheelchair access . |
| accessory | The gold necklace was her finest accessory . |
| accident | A broken ladder caused the accident . |
| vaccinate | It is vital to vaccinate children. |
| succeed | He has lots of potential to succeed . |
| success | I wish you lots of success . |
| successive | It snowed on five successive days. |
| successor | My successor will work just as hard. |
| succinct | Your report was clear and succinct . |