

Spelling list: Commonly misspelled 4

Commonly misspelled 4

repetition	Repetition of the same word(s) at the beginning of a series of phrases or lines.
responsibility	I delegate the responsibility to you.
studying	He has a very good attitude towards studying .
truly	Their wedding was a truly joyous occasion.
business	Development of new business is vital to an economy.
February	February is the shortest month in the year.
desirable	A new job in America was desirable .
excellent	Jane and Jim are excellent dancers.
probably	I will probably get 10 out of 10.
receipt	Pay the bill and ask for a receipt .
society	We have formed a history society to study our town's past.
absence	I didn't do much work during my absence .
actually	The Prairie Dog is actually a rodent.
benefit	There are several areas which would benefit from regeneration.
completely	My conscience is completely clear.
doesn't	Conceit doesn't suit you.
fascinate	I think this new game will fascinate your child.
occasion	Let's celebrate this great occasion .
similar	Our house is a similar design to yours.

attendance

Attendance at the meeting was compulsory.