

Spelling list: Verbs ending -ies

When we add -es to verbs ending y the y usually turns into an i .

studies	A psychologist studies the way the mind works.
marries	Jane will be excited when she marries Jack.
flies	Help me get rid of these flies .
cries	She always cries at the end of the film.
tries	My mum tries to make gourmet food.
copies	The machine prints lots of copies .
carries	A vein carries blood to the heart.
replies	I got all the replies for my party.
hurries	He always hurries to work.
worries	She listened to Bob's worries with consideration.