

Spelling list: Grade 9 Word List 2 (copy)

Word lists for students who reach 100% on the Spellzone original test connive	You managed to connive your way in here!

cumulative	The effect is cumulative so in the end it could be terrible.
cynical	That's a cynical way to think about it.
debase	The politician tried to debase his rival's reputation.
decry	How can you decry the death of a dog when applauding the death of a human?
deferential	In Victorian times it was normal for the working classes to be deferential when speaking to gentlemen.
demure	In Hamlet, Ophelia is defined as a demure young woman.
deride	The ageing actress would deride the younger ones she performed with as they were a threat to her.
despot	The country would never be accepted until their despot of a ruler was removed.
diligent	The student was described as diligent as she always completed her homework carefully.
elated	When he found out about his lottery win he was elated .
eloquent	The eloquent way she spoke impressed everyone.
embezzle	Some officials embezzle money and property.
empathy	The man was totally lacking in empathy .
enmity	Despite their problems in the past there was no enmity between them.
erudite	With a library like that it suggests whoever lived here was erudite at least.

extol	The doctor was always happy to extol the virtues of a healthy diet.
fabricate	Sometimes it is easier to fabricate a lie than to tell the truth.
feral	The boy was described as feral due to his animalistic behaviour.
forsake	Do not forsake me, oh my darlin'!