

Spelling list: Sort 2 - adding ing

Adding ing

|          |   |
|----------|---|
| swim     | Sharks swim in the sea.  |
| swimming | In my leisure time I enjoy swimming .                                |
| yell     | Please don't yell in class, I can't hear what the teacher is saying. |
| yelling  | The coach was yelling instructions to the football player.           |
| rest     | She went to her room to rest for a while before dinner.              |
| run      | Cheetahs run very fast.  |
| sit      | Come and sit between us.   |
| resting  | He was resting comfortably in a chair after his accident.            |
| stand    | John was hesitant to stand up and speak.                             |
| running  | Even though he was tired he kept running .                           |
| pass     | She must pass an exam to qualify for that job.                       |
| sitting  | We were all sitting in the garden when it rained.                    |
| pick     | The apple is ripe so pick it.  |
| standing | The students were standing in a line outside of the classroom.       |
| jump     | The loud screech made me jump .                                      |
| shut     | Shut the door behind you.  |
| picking  | He was in the library, picking a new reading book.                   |
| shutting | The shop will be shutting soon.                                      |
| passing  | The boy was passing a note to his friend in class.                   |