

Spelling list: Shakespearean Words!

The earliest record of these words are said be from Shakespeare s works.

accommodation That accommodation was the best.

bubble There was a bubble of soap floating through the kitchen.

courtship

distrustful

engagement The couple celebrated their engagement .

fairyland

fashionable In the US in the 1920s, the term flapper described a fashionable and independent young woman.

glutton

inauspicious

ladybird

misquote

moonbeam

obscene

perplex

savage Wolves can be savage and wild.

tardiness

unpremeditated

vulnerable The injured rabbit was in a very vulnerable position.

Weird I heard a very weird noise in the night.

zany