

Spelling list: BBS Grade 9 Word List 3

fractious	The children were fractious when they didn't get outside to play.
furtive	The man's furtive movements drew immediate suspicion.
gluttony	The sheer gluttony on display at dinner offended Mrs Dalrymple.
gratuitous	I can cope with some violence as long as it's not gratuitous .
haughty	A haughty person thinks a lot of herself.
hypocrisy	The characters can be accused of hypocrisy as it is a false appearance of virtue or goodness, while concealing real actions or inclinations,.
impeccable	The woman was respected for her impeccable manners.
impertinent	The woman thought it was rather impertinent of the police officer to direct his questions at her.
implacable	Even after being offered a free gift card, the angry customer remained implacable .
implicit	The handshake between the two men was their implicit agreement to the terms of the contract.
impudent	Matt is an impudent scoundrel who doesn't seem to respect rules or people.
incisive	With his unmatched wit and incisive remarks, the comedian attracted many fans.
indolent	My indolent daughter waited until the last possible day to start her lengthy research paper.
inept	The referee's inept handling of the match.
infamy	The mother-of-two soon gained infamy for leading the all-female terror group.

inhibit	Laura worried that her injury would inhibit he from dancing in the final show.
innate	While I am naturally shy, my sister has the innate ability to charm everyone she meets.
insatiable	He has an insatiable appetite.
insular	My grandparents' insular attitudes make them very uninterested in what is going on outside their own lives.
intrepid	Bear Grylls is an intrepid explorer.