

Spelling list: Detective Genre

Words we've met during this module culprit	The main culprit was arrested at the scene of the crime.

deduction	Miss Marple uses deduction to solve crimes.
observation	Sherlock Holmes uses observation to solve cases.
mystery	We watched a murder mystery on TV.
mysteries	Sherlock Holmes is a detective who investigates mysteries .
convention	The main convention of the detective genre is that the detective can't be the criminal.
logical	What is the logical sequence of events.
suspect	The suspect has a large moustache.
criminal	The criminal managed to elude justice.
investigation	The detective led the investigation into the murder of Frank Zamar.
competence	The assassin handled the gun with worrying competence .
tension	The tension mounted as the gun shook in the murderer's hand.
dialogue	The dialogue in the novel built tension.
victim	The victim was only 14 years old.
witness	The witness saw the man leaving the building at 10pm.
witnesses	There were several witnesses to the crime.
deliberate	Was that a deliberate mistake?
makeshift	The lights at the disco were makeshift .
	The concordat between father and daughter was that she caught the last concordat

bus home.