Spelling list: Algebra- Equations, formulae and identities

We can often solve two simultaneous equations by looking at them at the equations same time and trying to eliminate part of them.

Formulae (plural for formula) are special types of equation that show the formulae relationship between different variables.

algebra Algebra is heavily used in the electrical, chemical and physics industries.

brackets The 'B' in BODMAS stands for brackets .

Commutative means we can swap the numbers around in addition or commutative multiplication and still get the same answer.

An equation is a statement that two expressions are equal and we are often equation asked to solve them.

expression In maths, substitution is often used to replace an expression with a number.

If you evaluate something, you explain what makes it good or bad in your evaluate opinion.

prove Can you prove you are over 18?

simplify Can you simplify the text for him?

symbol This symbol means 'add': +.

unknown The actual results were unknown.

variable A variable is an alphabetic character representing a number.

value The approximate value for the house was $300,000.