

Spelling list: English - Comparative Connectives

Used to compare, discuss and argue, Showing similarity or adding a point, Showing a difference or an opposite point of view, Reinforcing a point

also	Jack's son is also called Jack.
even	Even though it's winter the weather is not cold.
furthermore	Furthermore you must remember your books.
indeed	Rare indeed is the chance to witness a bolt of lightning.
moreover	I like to race moreover I like to win.
only	I only met him briefly.
alternatively	You can run or alternatively you can walk quickly.
anyway	She could not find anyway out of the problem.
but	There were lots of ducks but only one goose.
differs	The story differs depending who tells it.
elsewhere	You can't be here, you need to go elsewhere .
even	Even though it's winter the weather is not cold.
however	Mable enjoyed chocolate cake however she preferred a coffee cake.
contrast	I like the contrast between the white jacket and blue trousers.
fact	It is a well known fact that a cube has six faces.
instead	Let's walk instead of driving.
nevertheless	He nevertheless recognised the danger of his actions.
Additionally	Additionally , he volunteered in his spare time.
Contrast	I like the contrast between the white jacket and blue trousers.