

Spelling list: double the consonant

double the consonant to make the vowel have a short sound plodding	John was plodding home from school.

stopping	The police were stopping the traffic.
tipping	I am tipping out all my rubbish.
thudding	There was a loud thudding noise coming from upstairs.
swapping	I am swapping my playstation for new reading books.
swimming	In my leisure time I enjoy swimming .
flipped	We flipped the coin to see who could go first.
swapped	I swapped my rubber for a pencil.
plodded	She plodded towards the deserted schoolroom.
stopped	He stopped the car suddenly.
tipped	She tipped over the box.
thudded	The elephant thudded out from the bushes.
flopped	I belly flopped into the pool.