

Spelling list: Engineering (aviation) Set 3

Words an aircraft engineer is likely to need when writing maintenance reports.

pedals	Most vehicles are operated using pedals .
pitch	A pitch is an abrupt up and down motion.
propeller	A propeller is a mechanical device that rotates to push against air.
reference	A reference is an indicator that orients you generally.
repaired	If something has been repaired , it has been put back into working order.
replaced	If something has been replaced , it has been substituted for a newer or better version.
reverse	To reverse is to turn in the opposite direction.
rough	If something is rough , it is violently turbulent.
rudder	A rudder is a hinged vertical airfoil mounted at the tail of an aircraft and used to make horizontal course changes.
screws	The screws used to hold a plane together are extremely strong.
servicing	Servicing is the process of assessing and making sure a machine is fit for use.
shimmy	A shimmy is an abnormal wobble in a motor vehicle.
damper	Dampers help to control shock in a vehicles suspension mechanism.
absorber	A shock absorber is vital to a vehicles suspension mechanism.
starboard	Starboard is the right hand side of a ship or aircraft, indicated with a green light.
starter	A starter initiates a vehicles engine.
	The undercarriage of an aircraft is usually a set of wheels used when undercarriage landing and taking off.

variable A variable is something that can change it's value.