

Spelling list: Spelling Test Two

spellings

caution            They approached the dog with caution .

cough                David has a bad cold and a cough .

meant                I meant to call you but I forgot.

because             The joke wasn't funny because it was crude.

imagination        She had a vivid imagination .

country             The country prospered under the King's reign.

his                    A proficient person does his job well.

coming              My young cousin is coming to stay.

definite             Is it definite that Jim is coming?

knowledge          Try not to baffle him with your knowledge .