Spelling list: Non-statutory words: the suffix -ly

The suffix ly is added to an adjective to form an adverb.

Tragedy is a story or play which tells of terrible events and usually ends sadly sadly.

completely My conscience is completely clear.

usually Puppies are usually excitable.

finally The group finally reached safety.

comically He tumbled over comically .