Spelling list: words ending in

Anyone struggling with pluralising words ending in "y" duties The soldier carried out his duties.

companies The two companies combined forces.

cookies My little boy was sly when he stole the cookies from the cookie jar.

counties England is divided into counties .

countries Bull fighting is banned in some countries .

cries There were many cries from the victims.

dries Nail varnish dries faster when you wagggle your fingers.

carries A vein carries blood to the heart.

butterflies Last month we saw many butterflies in the garden.

babies Babies are dependent on their mothers for food.

berries We picked berries off the bush in autumn.

enemies The boys were sworn enemies .

ponies The ponies in the field looked very cold in the snow.

bodies Embarrassing Bodies is a programme on Channel 4.

armies The armies of the south and north were at war.

dictionaries The teacher carried the dictionaries into the classroom.

empties My brother empties the dishwasher.

activities Take part in enrichment activities.

batteries He bought extra batteries in order to have some for spares.

copies The machine printed thousands of copies .