

Spelling list: Year 9 A Christmas Carol Mastery

Year 9 A Christmas Carol Mastery List

malthusianism	The idea of malthusianism is represented through the attitude of Scroog at the beginning of the novella.
archetype	An archetype is a typical example of something.
supernatural	Gothic is a style of writing characterised by horror, intense emotion and supernatural events.
sabbatarianism	Dickens criticises sabbatarianism in his novel.
criticism	Dickens novella could be viewed as a criticism of the rich in Victorian society.
transformation	By the end of the novella Scrooge's transformation is complete. He is a changed man.
repent	At the end of the novella Scrooge understands the need to repent .
responsibility	Dickens wants the rich to take more responsibility for the poor.
ignorance	The rich is society often show an ignorance about the lives of the poor.
mortality	Child mortality was high in Victorian London.