

Spelling list: Charlie Burrows Wordlist

from                    The quilt is filled with feathers from the eider duck.

it's                    It's too hot in here for me.

children

help                    Help me get rid of these flies.

don't                    Don't eat it all, leave me a piece.

old                    The ceiling is very low in this old house.

i'm                    I'm going back to Spain next year.

time                    In my leisure time I enjoy swimming.

house                    The ceiling is very low in this old house .

about                    Don't push me about .

your                    I to the end will be your friend.

day                    It was a misty day so the town was in gloom.

came                    The tide came up much higher yesterday.

make                    Make sure the root has plenty of water.

here                    Wait here until I get back.