

Spelling list: Characters in Macbeth

Macbeth by William Shakespeare explores themes guilt, power, and the corrupting nature of ambition. The tragedy follows the ambitious Scottish general, Macbeth, and his ruthless wife, Lady Macbeth, as they plot and murder their way to the throne. As guilt and paranoia consume them, supernatural elements heighten the tension.

Duncan	Duncan is the King of Scotland.
Malcolm	Malcolm is a son of the King.
Donalbain	Donalbain is a son of the King.
Macbeth	Macbeth is a general of the King's army.
banquo	Banquo is a general of the King's army.
Macduff	Macduff is a nobleman of Scotland.
Lennox	Lennox is a nobleman of Scotland.
Ross	Ross is a nobleman of Scotland.
Menteth	Menteth is a nobleman of Scotland.
Angus	Angus is a nobleman of Scotland.
Cathness	Cathness is a nobleman of Scotland.
Fleance	Fleance is the son to Banquo.
Siward	Siward is the Earl of Northumberland, general of the English forces.
Seyton	Seyton is an officer attending on Macbeth.