

Spelling list: -ly words plus 4 high frequency words.

- ly is a consonant suffix which is added to the end of words. If the word ends in a y, change the y to an i and add -ly."

| | |
|------------|---|
| happy | Happy Birthday to you! |
| happily | Happily , the girls skipped across the park. |
| swiftly | Swiftly , the fox gathered speed to escape from the hounds. |
| quickly | Our baby has grown so quickly . |
| friendly | I like a person with a friendly character. |
| unfriendly | He looked very unfriendly but was just shy! |
| briskly | Briskly , I hurried along the slippery, frozen pathway to my home. |
| strictly | The end of year Prom is strictly Year 11 only. |
| softly | The orchestra played softly in the background. |
| loudly | Shaun snores very loudly . |
| slowly | The river flows slowly here. |
| angry | It's plain to see you are angry . |
| angrily | This is totally karma, she told herself angrily . |
| bravely | Bravely , she sat in the doctors. |
| amazingly | The gadget was amazingly cool. |
| excitedly | Excitedly , the boys rushed downstairs on Christmas morning. |
| heard | I heard a very weird noise in the night. |
| everywhere | The glitter got everywhere . |
| enough | A dozen eggs will be enough . |