

Spelling list: -ce at the end of a word has the sound (s)

The e in the -ce does 2 jobs. It softens the c to give the sound (s) and lengthens the vowel in vce words.

fence	The fence was made of wooden stakes.
dance	We all had a dance at the party.
chance	I would like the chance to be Captain today.
convince	I had to convince Jim that he was wrong.
distance	Use a telescope to see in the distance .
mice	Mice like to keep warm.
nice	Leeks are nice in a stew.
nicely	She played nicely with her friends.
slice	Can I entice you to have a slice of cream cake?
price	Scan the bar code to find the price .
face	She had a very smiley face .
entice	Can I entice you to have a slice of cream cake?
graceful	The ballet was graceful .
disgrace	The football player was sent off the pitch in disgrace .