

Spelling list: Alan's Sight Words-#1

These are the words you need to be able to say immediately, without sounding.

who	See who is at the door.
be	The heir to his fortune will be very rich.
been	Counterfeit bank notes have been forged.
eat	Don't eat it all, leave me a piece.
ate	We ate far too much last night.
find	Fred can never find his car keys.
grow	Reeds grow by the river.
grew	The teenager grew a lot in just a year.
drew	Kate drew a sketch of her brother.
draw	I won a thousand dollars in the draw .
wear	Kids prefer to wear casual clothes.
were	We were deceived by his smooth talk.
even	Even though it's winter the weather is not cold.
poet	The poet wrote an ode to his love.
poetry	Technique whereby the phrasing of one line of poetry runs into the next line, because there is no punctuation at the end of the line.
poem	I learnt the poem by rote.
lost	The beggar had lost his money, he was very poor.
wife	He gave his wife a gold brooch.
bear	A baby bear is called a cub.

bare

The room was bare .