

Spelling list: Y10 Lord of the Flies

Vocabulary from Chapters 2-6 of Lord of the Flies indignant	She was most indignant with me when I suggested she might try a little harder.

ebullience	I put her remarks down to youthful ebullience .
recrimination	When the politician heard of his rival s accusation, he made a recrimination as a form of retaliation.
tirade	The politician s tirade against the proposed law lasted for nearly two hours.
inscrutable	Not even the leading experts in criminology could understand the killer s inscrutable motives.
vicissitudes	Some say that we must go through the vicissitudes in life to become a stronger person.
tacit	I don't need to keep repeating that I love you; this is a tacit understanding between us.
flaunt	It's exhibitionism to flaunt wealth so blatantly.
malevolent	She gave a malevolent flash of her eyes.
speculate	This has led scientists to speculate on the existence of other galaxies.
jeer	Some people might jeer at my speech.
inarticulate	Her actions were an inarticulate cry for help.
relentless	It is easy to feel trampled by the relentless march of technology.
leviathan	When the tiny teenager saw the leviathan he had to wrestle, he ran from the school gym.
clamor	There was a clamor from the crowd at the bad news.