

Spelling list: Y9 Word Wall #2

to expand our vocabulary. Words taken from the class based on the novels they are reading.

beckon	I'll just beckon to him to tell him to come over here.
straggle	The toddler will always straggle when she is tired of walking.
conspire	When Henry won the lottery, he became paranoid his relatives would conspire to take his money.
decree	According to the court s decree , all suspects can meet their accusers in court.
repository	The temple itself became the chief repository of records.
dapper	In the roaring twenties, all of the dapper men took a great deal of care with their appearance.
clench	The thought made her chest clench so tight, she almost stopped walking.
abstain	He chose to abstain from alcohol.
wayward	The thought made her chest clench so tight, she almost stopped walking.
calamity	It still depends on Your Majesty to preserve humanity from the calamity of another war.
erudite	As a result of having studied abroad several years, Helen has become quite erudite on the subject of art history.
teetotaler	My Dad was a teetotaler who didn't permit alcohol in the home, not even for cooking.