

Spelling list: Prefix 'in'

The prefix "in" usually means "not". It will give the root words the opposite meaning.

insane	The high cost of the skiing trip was insane .
inexact	He gave an inexact description of the criminal.
indirect	He took an indirect route home from school.
informal	The uniform for the school trip was very informal .
injustice	People protested in the streets over the injustice they felt at raising more taxes.