

Spelling list: Mr D 13.03.15 Part 2

celebrate	Let's celebrate this great occasion.
cemetery	A catacomb is an underground cemetery .
centigrade
centimetres
certificate	The college awarded me a certificate .
cigarette	I saw my Grandad smoking a cigarette .
coincidence	It was a coincidence I ran into Jim at the party.
concert	The noise at the concert was bearable.
cylinder	A tube shaped object is a cylinder .
cynical	We should not be too cynical about politicians and their motives.
absence	I didn't do much work during my absence .
advance	They planned the holiday well in advance .
apprentice	The plumbing company employed Jim as an apprentice .
capacity	Capacity is the ability to hold a fluid, very similar to volume.
deceased	Jack's touching eulogy for his deceased friend left all the mourners weeping.
difference	Subtract is to take away one number from another; other words include minus or find the difference .
electricity	Our electricity bill is much higher this year.
innocent	He is completely innocent of any crime.

magnificent

This painting is a magnificent work of art.

specimen

Some specimens of rock were brought back from the moon.