

Spelling list: 19th March Tink Spellings

Chop the word into syllables, spell one syllable at a time.

spectacle	The fireworks were a wonderful spectacle .
complete	This was a complete waste of time.
operator	The machine operator is an expert at his work.
investigate	The police investigate all crimes.
interview	He thought about the interview with apprehension.
composer	The composer was a great man.
controller	His controller was new.
fertilise	The farmer had to fertilise the fields.
photocopier	The photocopier had broken again!
contributory	Annabel got a house point for making an excellent contributory remark to the class discussion.
obligatory	Washing your hands before lunch is obligatory .
territory	The army's advance gained only 500m of territory .
laboratory	Scientists conduct experiments in a laboratory .
lavatory	She asked the teacher if she could go the lavatory .
theory	I would like to learn more about the big bang theory .
unnecessary	It is unnecessary to scream at your Parents when you feel cross.
vocabulary	Use a thesaurus to widen your vocabulary .
mortuary	'Why have you got the word mortuary in your spellings?' questioned Annabel's Mum.

sanctuary

She retreated to her sanctuary after a very stressful day.