

Spelling list: Animal Rights

Animal Rights- Word List 1 MYP English Language B

breed	A breed is a type of animal.
activism	Activism is an activity that brings about social change.
threat	Threat is something that is a source of danger.
experimentation	An idea or explanation that you then test through study and experimentation .
misinformed	You are misinformed if you are given false or inaccurate information.
justifiable	Justifiable means reasonable or proper according to accepted standards.
sympathy	Sympathy is an expression of pity for another.
ethical	Ethical is conforming to certain rules or standards.
campaign	A campaign is a series of actions intended to accomplish a goal.
controversy	Controversy is a disagreement among many people.
vigilant	To be vigilant you must be on alert or watchful.
empathy	Empathy is the understanding of another's situation, feelings and motives.
extinction	Extinction describes a species that no longer has any known living individuals.
safari	In a safari park, animals are able to move around freely and are watched by visitors from their cars.
caged	Within a Zoo, animals are usually caged and locked in enclosures.
habitat	Pet rabbits live in cages, but the natural habitat of a wild rabbit is fields and woods.
exotic	Exotic animals are animals that are not native to where they live.

endangered	Endangered species are species whose numbers are so small that it is at risk of extinction.
breeding	Breeding is the mating and production of offspring by animals.
veterinarian	A veterinarian is an animal doctor.
reserve	A game reserve is an area set aside by the government where animals are protected from hunters.