

Spelling list: To Kill a Mockingbird2

vocabulary building

obstreperous	Because my nephew is obstreperous , he often gets in trouble at school.
contentious	The referee's decision was contentious; the crowd did not agree with it at all.
umbrage	The girl took umbrage with the judge's decision.
palliation	There are also drugs that offer palliative care - treating the symptoms of migraines as they arise.
malignant	A malignant attitude will turn others away from friendship.
provocation	Doubtless there was provocation , for the president did not keep his promise on the deal.
wrathful	It is a wrathful God who punishes his lambs with tempests and plagues.
propensities	Men have a greater propensity for baldness than women.
auspicious	They hoped that their wedding would be an auspicious occasion.
desolate	It was a desolate wasteland except for some grazing sheep.