

Spelling list: Final consonant blends - set 2

This list of final consonant blends brings you essential words to boost spelling skills. A final consonant blend consists of two or more consonants at the end of a word, like nd in sand . You can hear the sound of each consonant when the word is pronounced. This list will help students recognise common word endings, while making learning practical and engaging.

sand                      The children played in the sand pit.

nest                      There is a bird nest in the tree.

band                      I play drums in a band .

lamp                      The lamp was hot.

sink                      The sink had a leak.

link                      Click on the link to see my pictures.

tank                      There were six fish in the tank .

hand                      He caught the ball with one hand .